What we are all about!

• Core values of the Trust

EXCITE

• What this means for parents

EXPLORE

What we have done.

With Trust support, we have...

• Implemented an entirely new, fabulous curriculum for all children

What we have done

• Ofsted judged us as 'taking effective action'.

Since joining the school in January 2021, you have worked with pace to make improvements. You have shared a clear improvement plan with staff. Staff understand this plan and know what needs to be done to improve the school.

...your leaders have remodelled the school values. Despite the pandemic, you have made sure that pupils, staff and parents understand these values well.

You have also received support from the multiacademy trust you intend to join. Trust leaders have provided effective training. This training is helping develop staff's knowledge of the features of an effective curriculum.

What we have done

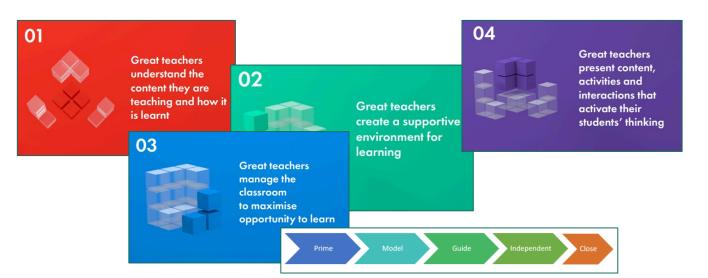

- Improved safeguarding.
- Cases now escalated and referred quickly and sharply.
 - Regular training
 - Focus on a culture of vigilance
 - Safeguarding part of every staff meeting
 - Leaders' trained regularly and up to date
 - Rob Matthews + Wendy Jackson Safeguarding leads

Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility

What we have done

- Children at the heart of what we do
- Improving teaching and learning
- "QFT" Quality First Teaching
- Professional development for all staff
- Raised accountability

Communication

- On the gate
- By email
- Talking to you at events such as this
- Trust wider enrichment opportunities
- Newsletters
- Open door policy (subject to Covid!)

Next steps Our plans this term.

1. Implement a curriculum which is well planned, and sequenced and meets the needs of all learners.

- 2. Develop quality of strategic leadership so school is effectively led and managed at all levels.
- 3. Develop teaching approaches so that school practice is effective (QFT).

Our approach

Looking back: 2020-2021

- Two schools joined the Trust
- Shireland Collegiate Academy Trust was named as example of "transforming education" by Secretary of State for Education, Rt. Hon. Gavin Williamson CBE MP, in his EducationFest Keynote speech In June.

• We purchased over 640 supermarket vouchers over October half term 2020 for those who usually receive free school meals when the government chose not to fund meal vouchers.

• Our GCSE resources that we devised with Encyclopedia Britannica, LaunchPacks, have been named as 2021 BETT Award winner in the category of 'Classroom aids for tools for learning, teaching and assessment'.

Remote Learning support

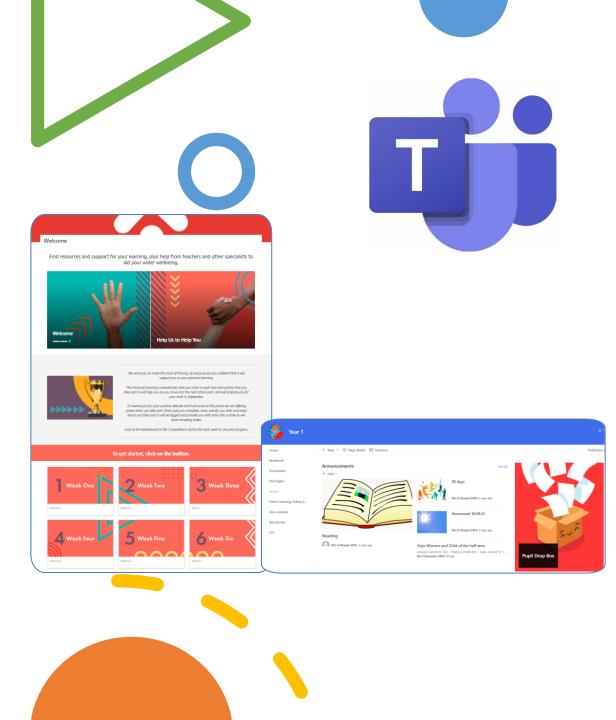

• Over 100,000 live lessons

delivered through Microsoft Teams during the last academic year.

Over 452,000 visits to our online learning platform

'Class Sites' since January 2021 lockdown.

• 451 quiz responses in one month on 'Heads Up', our online summer learning platform for Year 7 students moving into Year 8.

A great start back!

- Comprehensive training for teaching staff on the Excite Explore Excel (E3L) curriculum
- An 'Amazing' Training Day for teachers across all five Trust primary academies held in early September.
 - Focused on crafting great learning journeys and experiences
 - Delivered by world history author, lecturer and children's educational publisher Chris Lloyd and renowned education consultant Professor Mick Waters.

Eduu.school and E3L curriculum

- We have agreed to sell our Excite, Explore, Excel curriculum to Hodder, one of the top three publishers in the country.
- Hodder are now publishing our E3L curriculum as their primary offer to all the schools they support across the country.
- They have about 8,000 schools who use their curriculum.

Our curriculum is driven by our School Values

POWERFUL PATTERNS

People have always loved finding patterns in art. Imagine travelling through history in a time machine. Whizzing back 3000 years to ancient Iraq, you'd find some amazingly old pottery with geometric patterns. On your way back, visit 1900s France during the Art Deco craze, where bold patterns were made using just lines. Watch out for world-famous artist Piet Mondrian – he could show you how to earn millions of pounds simply by slicing up rectangles and arranging them into a pattern!

Amazing patterns can be made by using simple shapes. Why not give it a go?

How it works

50 Things Portfolios - Example

31. Make your own lemonade.

Write a set of instructions and describe the steps you took to make it for others to follow.

36. Paint a portrait.

Write about who you painted for your portrait. Describe which feature you found easiest and hardest to paint and why. If possible, attach a copy.

SIOURNEY

32. Make biscuits.

Reflect on how you made the biscuits. Describe how you found making them, how they tasted and consider what you might do differently next time.

37. Write to a pen pal.

Explain who your pen pal is, the country/town they live in. Describe what your letter was about and whether you have received a reply.

PASSPORT TO SUCCESS

Welcome to Passport to Success

The Passport to Success is an award that has been set up for parents and carers of students at our Trust Schools.

The award was set up and designed to help recognise outstanding contributions to school, family life and the local community.

The Passport to Success key priorities are to help enrich children's school experience by providing a range of workshops with a strong emphasis on knowledge, skill and cultural capital.

Booklet

The way we monitor progress and engagement is through our PTS Family Engagement Booklet.

Each family will be given a booklet and every activity/workshop they complete they will earn one stamp.

The more stamps they collect, the greater the reward!

If I achieve: 4 stamps - a selection of Goodies 8 stamps – Voucher 12 stamps - FREE! Family Day Trip
